Hosting the DNC in 2012

What Will it Take and What Does it Mean for Me?

During the week of September 3, 2012, Charlotte will play host to the Democratic National Convention and have the wonderful opportunity to show our nation and the world, the innovative, energetic, diverse city we call home. Over 30,000 delegates, national and international media, key policy and political decision-makers and other visitors are expected to visit area hotels, restaurants, entertainment venues and attractions.

Learn what type of impact this will have on the local Meeting Industry and what we can all do to prepare for such an experience. Also learn valuable insight from Chief of Event Planning as she even begins to put thoughts into action for planning on such an enormous scale.

Guest Speaker, Mary Tribble is the Chief of Event Planning for the Host Committee (Charlotte in 2012) for the Democratic National Convention and is a nationally recognized and award-winning business owner, event professional, author and speaker. She is also the co-founder and co-director of the NC Governor's Conference for Women.
